Re: ANTE LITEM NOTICE PURSUANT TO O.C.G.A. §36-11-1

Dear Mr. Whitfield:

This law firm has been hired to represent the McLemore Cove Preservation Society and its members in pursuit of a legal claim against Walker County, Georgia and Pilgrim's Pride Corporation. This letter shall serve as ante litem notice of the claim as required by O.C.G.A. §36-11-1.

The claim seeks to enjoin the placement of a chicken processing facility in the area known as McLemore Cove in Walker County, Georgia. The anticipated chicken processing operation, if allowed, would present a nuisance to surrounding property owners, including but not limited to foul smells, increased traffic patterns, excessive noise, environmental hazards, and aesthetic deterioration.

A demand that you cease all actions in furtherance of this land use is hereby made, including but not limited to the offering of tax incentives to Pilgrim's Pride Corp.

Sincerely,

McCamy, Phillips, Tuggle & Fordham LLP
